A percentage of the rate for 'dogs meeting Handler at ringside' is expenses.

Terms and Conditions

Entry fees, vet fees, medicines, health certificates, special diets and supplements, photographs and advertising are the responsibility of the owner. The owner will provide a valid credit card number to be used for entry fees and any emergency vet expenses.

Entry fees remain due, whether the dog is shown or not. Handling fees and expenses remain due if the dog is pulled anytime after five days prior to the show closing date. The five days is to allow the handler time to find a replacement dog. In the event of a ring conflict, at the handler's discretion, a competent substitute handler will be chosen to take the dog in the ring and the client will be charged the full fee. If a competent substitute is not available, the dog will be pulled from the show that day and no fee will be charged.

All cash prizes are the property of the handler. Client must have no outstanding debts with another handler. All invoices are due upon receipt or will be subject to 5% monthly interest. All fees must be paid in full before the dog is released to the handler unless other arrangements have been made.

The client agrees not to hold the handler responsible for illness, loss, injury, theft or death of the dog, provided all normal precautions were taken. The client acknowledges that the dog is not insured by the handler against loss.

The client hereby authorizes the handler to seek any veterinary treatment or medication that is deemed necessary. The client also agrees to cover any such expenses.
