

Prophecy of Muslims

From the Lord Through Gaylene Womack

August 1998

For the Muslims are incensed against you. They rage with hatred and anger. They have filled this land and polluted it. They have set up their idols in this that was My land. Behold, they now, even now, plot against you. For there will be great mass murders soon on this land. This will tell you this is just the beginning of the slaying in this that was My land.

For you have allowed the strangers with strange gods to pollute your land. You were to go to their land and present Me to them. But they have come to your land and presented their god and polluted this land, that was My land.

See now the very beginnings of great sorrow across this land.

Weep, My children, in sack cloth and ashes. Come to Me with a sorrowful heart. Repent for allowing this pollution in this land, that was My land.

You have prayed not against it, you have opened your arms wide and embraced it. Now they shall embrace you with much sorrow and tears.
